

VOTING & FELONY CONVICTIONS GUIDE

Individuals are disqualified from voting for the following reasons:

- Death
- Federal felony conviction
- State felony conviction
- By a declaration of a Kansas Court of Law.

A federal or state felony conviction results in the loss of voting rights until the terms of the felony sentence is complete. A sentence is not considered complete until probation or parole is finished.

Individuals who lose their voting rights due to a felony conviction may re-register to vote upon completion of their sentence. The voter registration form includes an affidavit above the signature line attesting an individual's right to vote has been restored. Signing a false affidavit is a felony and could result in the loss of voting rights, if convicted.
